

WYOMING'S MANY CANDIDATES

Republicans Will Meet in State Convention Thursday at Casper.

RICHARDS AND MONDELL FOR GOVERNOR

As a Third Choice Division of Laramie Will Receive the Nomination—Competition for Other Offices Extremely Heavy.

CHEYENNE, Wyo., July 30.—(Special to The Bee.)—The Republicans of Wyoming will meet in delegate convention at Casper Thursday to place in nomination candidates for the respective state offices and one representative in congress. There are numerous aspirants for the various offices, and it is anticipated that it will be an interesting contest.

The leading candidates for governor are ex-Surveyor General W. A. Richards of Johnson county and State Senator Frank W. Mondell of Newcastle. The name of Edward Vinson of Laramie, the republican nominee for the office two years ago, will also be presented to the convention. In the event of a deadlock between Richards and Mondell, the latter will receive the nomination. It will be a close contest between the last named, and it is impossible to predict the result. The nomination of either of them will add great strength to the ticket.

There are three prominent gentlemen already in the field for treasurer, with several dark horses in prospect. They are: John H. Richards, president of the First National bank of Douglas; Henry G. Hay, president of the Stock Growers' National bank of Cheyenne; and Frank S. Lusk, county treasurer of Fremont county. The most formidable dark horse is J. C. Davis, president of the First National bank of Rawlins.

It is pretty generally conceded that a woman will receive the nomination for state superintendent of public instruction. Miss Estelle Reed, county superintendent of Laramie county, and Mrs. Theresa A. Fowler of Cheyenne are the representatives of the gentler sex. The names of W. O. Owen of Laramie county and R. F. Ogden of Sheridan county have also been mentioned in connection. Miss Reed appears to be the leading candidate in the race.

Attorney General C. N. Winter of Cheyenne, Attorney State Attorney B. F. Fowler of Sundance and D. H. Craig, prosecuting attorney of Carbon county, are mentioned for judges of the supreme court. The contest here between Attorney General Potter and United States Attorney Fowler is the only one of importance. Thus far C. W. Burdick, the present incumbent, is the only one mentioned for auditor. He will, no doubt, receive the nomination by acclamation.

There will be a warm contest over the chairmanship of the state committee. Judge Willis Van Devanter, the present chairman, and R. E. Esteb of Cheyenne are the candidates for the place.

The republicans have an abundance of good material from which to make their nominations, and there is no question about a strong ticket being chosen.

Several prominent republican orators will address the convention, among whom will be Mrs. J. Ellen Foster.

DEMOCRATIC CANDIDATES SCARCE.

Iowa's Faithful Will Meet in State Convention Tomorrow.

DES MOINES, July 30.—(Special Telegram to The Bee.)—The democratic state convention is advertised to meet in this city Wednesday. As yet there are few of the leaders or delegates here and the indications point to an excellent light convention, although there are 1,127 delegates. J. M. Parsons of Rock Rapids will be the temporary chairman and ex-Governor Horace Boies will be permanent chairman. Up to the present time no candidates have appeared for any of the offices, and it looks like a clear case of the office seeking the man.

Boies Hunter, Richardson and Fuller are here, but they say they know no one who is anxious to run for office on the democratic ticket this year. County conventions held the last week of June and the first of July, but have confined themselves to condemning the senate and endorsing President Cleveland's course on the tariff. The same course will probably be adopted at the state convention. The populists were to have met on the same date, but the convention has been postponed to September 4 in order to get advantage of state fair ticket rates.

There have been several cases of fusion between the two parties in this state, but it is not thought they can get together on the state ticket.

The following list of alleged candidates was promulgated this evening by an alleged authoritative source: Governor, J. W. White of Wayne county; J. M. Alexander of Fremont county; J. H. St. Aubert of Marion county; Judge of supreme court, J. L. Delano of Lincoln county; Ball of Iowa county; M. W. Beach of Carroll county; John E. Dayton of Winnebago county; attorney general, J. W. White of Lincoln county; D. D. Murphy of Clay county; J. C. Mitchell of Wapello county; railroad commissioner, Peter A. Day of Johnson county; W. W. Montgomery of Boone county; Fred White of Keokuk county; reporter of supreme court, J. J. Shea of Putnam county; Byron Seavers of Mahaska county; clerk of supreme court, J. J. McCathay of Dubuque county; Alex. Reichman of Plymouth county.

WILL REDEM COLORADO.

Mrs. J. Ellen Foster Thinks the Republicans Will Elect the Governor.

CHEYENNE, Wyo., July 30.—(Special Telegram to The Bee.)—Mrs. J. Ellen Foster, the woman's rights advocate, arrived from Denver this afternoon. Mrs. Foster accompanied her, Mrs. Foster, in speaking of affairs in Colorado, where she has been lecturing several weeks, said that the women of Colorado are doing a noble work in the redemption of that state from populist misrule. I am positive Colorado will elect a republican governor and two republican congressmen this fall. Kansas will also be redeemed. The people will tolerate the present corrupt government no longer. It is a question of government or no government at all, which the voters may be depended upon to settle in the proper manner.

She will speak at the republican state convention at Casper on Thursday.

It was a Red Hot Convention.

BUTTE, Neb., July 30.—(Special to The Bee.)—The republican county convention was held Saturday. In the selection of delegates to the congressional convention kindred friends forced the fight and were knocked out, resulting in what is supposed to be a Daugherty delegation. On the state delegation the following were elected delegates: H. W. Matthews, Ed Lewis, Frank Morse, H. Whitting, W. A. Kenaston and Jonas Tarshall. This is supposed to be a Major delegation. T. M. Burbank was nominated for county attorney and E. R. Stoddard for clerk. There was a red hot convention and much ill feeling resulted.

PRESIDENT ONG HOPEFUL.

Thinks the Next Governor Will Be a Free Silver Democrat.

President J. E. Ong of the Nebraska Free Silver league came from Geneva last evening and registered at the Merchants. He said he is not in Omaha for the purpose of any of the members of the democratic state central committee. It was the hope of the free silver wing of the party that an early state convention would be held, so as to get promptly into the field as soon as either of the other parties and have time for a thorough presentation of the issues to the voters of the state, but after the conference between the committee appointed by the league and the officers of the state central committee, and in view of the now plainly revealed plan of the state committee to hold a convention, this hope has been abandoned.

But Mr. Ong says that the time of holding the convention will make no difference in his opinion, and he is confident that the free silver wing of the party will be successful. "From the reports that have come in from several parts of the state," said he, "and from the character of the delegates that I know are being done I am sanguine that the convention will be controlled, as we have determined to have it, by the advocates of free silver."

"I have and the matter discussed very little," said Mr. Ong in response to a question as to whom the free silver men would put forward for governor. "I do not think," he replied, "in answer to a question, that Congressman Bryan will be suggested in the convention as a candidate. In his opinion, the party will receive the constant and firm support of the free silver wing of the party."

Mr. Ong was emphatic and prompt in his opinion that he believed the success of the democratic state ticket with an administration man at the head of it would be exceedingly doubtful and the support that would be given to the ticket would be very small.

Mr. Ong is convinced that party tie in Nebraska are much looser than they used to be, and therefore he thinks the campaign will be a pretty affair of triangular shape, with the chances in favor of the democrats. In this case he is confident that the free silver wing of the party will be successful. "I am sure," he said, "that the free silver wing of the party will be successful."

With a free silver man at the head of the democratic ticket, Mr. Ong believes the fight will be a pretty affair of triangular shape, with the chances in favor of the democrats. In this case he is confident that the free silver wing of the party will be successful.

Mr. Ong is convinced that party tie in Nebraska are much looser than they used to be, and therefore he thinks the campaign will be a pretty affair of triangular shape, with the chances in favor of the democrats.

It is pretty generally conceded that a woman will receive the nomination for state superintendent of public instruction. Miss Estelle Reed, county superintendent of Laramie county, and Mrs. Theresa A. Fowler of Cheyenne are the representatives of the gentler sex.

The republicans have an abundance of good material from which to make their nominations, and there is no question about a strong ticket being chosen.

Several prominent republican orators will address the convention, among whom will be Mrs. J. Ellen Foster.

DEMOCRATIC CANDIDATES SCARCE.

Iowa's Faithful Will Meet in State Convention Tomorrow.

DES MOINES, July 30.—(Special Telegram to The Bee.)—The democratic state convention is advertised to meet in this city Wednesday. As yet there are few of the leaders or delegates here and the indications point to an excellent light convention, although there are 1,127 delegates. J. M. Parsons of Rock Rapids will be the temporary chairman and ex-Governor Horace Boies will be permanent chairman. Up to the present time no candidates have appeared for any of the offices, and it looks like a clear case of the office seeking the man.

Boies Hunter, Richardson and Fuller are here, but they say they know no one who is anxious to run for office on the democratic ticket this year. County conventions held the last week of June and the first of July, but have confined themselves to condemning the senate and endorsing President Cleveland's course on the tariff. The same course will probably be adopted at the state convention. The populists were to have met on the same date, but the convention has been postponed to September 4 in order to get advantage of state fair ticket rates.

There have been several cases of fusion between the two parties in this state, but it is not thought they can get together on the state ticket.

The following list of alleged candidates was promulgated this evening by an alleged authoritative source: Governor, J. W. White of Wayne county; J. M. Alexander of Fremont county; J. H. St. Aubert of Marion county; Judge of supreme court, J. L. Delano of Lincoln county; Ball of Iowa county; M. W. Beach of Carroll county; John E. Dayton of Winnebago county; attorney general, J. W. White of Lincoln county; D. D. Murphy of Clay county; J. C. Mitchell of Wapello county; railroad commissioner, Peter A. Day of Johnson county; W. W. Montgomery of Boone county; Fred White of Keokuk county; reporter of supreme court, J. J. Shea of Putnam county; Byron Seavers of Mahaska county; clerk of supreme court, J. J. McCathay of Dubuque county; Alex. Reichman of Plymouth county.

WILL REDEM COLORADO.

Mrs. J. Ellen Foster Thinks the Republicans Will Elect the Governor.

CHEYENNE, Wyo., July 30.—(Special Telegram to The Bee.)—Mrs. J. Ellen Foster, the woman's rights advocate, arrived from Denver this afternoon. Mrs. Foster accompanied her, Mrs. Foster, in speaking of affairs in Colorado, where she has been lecturing several weeks, said that the women of Colorado are doing a noble work in the redemption of that state from populist misrule. I am positive Colorado will elect a republican governor and two republican congressmen this fall. Kansas will also be redeemed. The people will tolerate the present corrupt government no longer. It is a question of government or no government at all, which the voters may be depended upon to settle in the proper manner.

She will speak at the republican state convention at Casper on Thursday.

It was a Red Hot Convention.

BUTTE, Neb., July 30.—(Special to The Bee.)—The republican county convention was held Saturday. In the selection of delegates to the congressional convention kindred friends forced the fight and were knocked out, resulting in what is supposed to be a Daugherty delegation. On the state delegation the following were elected delegates: H. W. Matthews, Ed Lewis, Frank Morse, H. Whitting, W. A. Kenaston and Jonas Tarshall. This is supposed to be a Major delegation. T. M. Burbank was nominated for county attorney and E. R. Stoddard for clerk. There was a red hot convention and much ill feeling resulted.

PRESIDENT ONG HOPEFUL.

Thinks the Next Governor Will Be a Free Silver Democrat.

President J. E. Ong of the Nebraska Free Silver league came from Geneva last evening and registered at the Merchants. He said he is not in Omaha for the purpose of any of the members of the democratic state central committee. It was the hope of the free silver wing of the party that an early state convention would be held, so as to get promptly into the field as soon as either of the other parties and have time for a thorough presentation of the issues to the voters of the state, but after the conference between the committee appointed by the league and the officers of the state central committee, and in view of the now plainly revealed plan of the state committee to hold a convention, this hope has been abandoned.

But Mr. Ong says that the time of holding the convention will make no difference in his opinion, and he is confident that the free silver wing of the party will be successful. "From the reports that have come in from several parts of the state," said he, "and from the character of the delegates that I know are being done I am sanguine that the convention will be controlled, as we have determined to have it, by the advocates of free silver."

"I have and the matter discussed very little," said Mr. Ong in response to a question as to whom the free silver men would put forward for governor. "I do not think," he replied, "in answer to a question, that Congressman Bryan will be suggested in the convention as a candidate. In his opinion, the party will receive the constant and firm support of the free silver wing of the party."

Mr. Ong was emphatic and prompt in his opinion that he believed the success of the democratic state ticket with an administration man at the head of it would be exceedingly doubtful and the support that would be given to the ticket would be very small.

Mr. Ong is convinced that party tie in Nebraska are much looser than they used to be, and therefore he thinks the campaign will be a pretty affair of triangular shape, with the chances in favor of the democrats. In this case he is confident that the free silver wing of the party will be successful.

With a free silver man at the head of the democratic ticket, Mr. Ong believes the fight will be a pretty affair of triangular shape, with the chances in favor of the democrats.

It is pretty generally conceded that a woman will receive the nomination for state superintendent of public instruction. Miss Estelle Reed, county superintendent of Laramie county, and Mrs. Theresa A. Fowler of Cheyenne are the representatives of the gentler sex.

The republicans have an abundance of good material from which to make their nominations, and there is no question about a strong ticket being chosen.

Several prominent republican orators will address the convention, among whom will be Mrs. J. Ellen Foster.

JAPANESE HAD NO MERCY

Many Who Escaped from the Sinking Chinese Transport Promptly Killed.

FRENCH SHIP RESCUES A FEW SURVIVORS

Europeans Who Were on Their Way to Korea Treated as Enemies and Shot Down in the Water—Chinese Armies Marching Into Korea.

SHANGHAI, July 30.—The following is the latest Chinese version of the sinking of the troop ship Kow Shung, chartered by China from the China Merchants' Trading and Steamship company: When the Kow Shung was overhauled by the Japanese cruiser the latter sent a boat alongside the transport with a prize crew to convey her to Japan. The Japanese boarded the Kow Shung and ordered the captain, Captain Galsworthy, an Englishman, to proceed to Japan. The captain refused to obey this order and the Japanese withdrew to report to the commander of their cruiser. The latter then opened fire upon the transport, using the machine guns mounted in the tops of the Japanese ship. This fire was so well directed that it soon cleared the Kow Shung's decks. The cruiser then discharged two torpedoes at the transport, sinking her and drowning nearly all of the 2,000 souls on board.

Colonel von Hanneken, a German, formerly the viceroys' aide-de-camp, and a number of other foreign officers were among those killed by the fire from the tops of the Japanese ship before the torpedoes were discharged. The effect of the explosion of the torpedoes is said to have been terrific. Gaping holes were made in the hull of the transport, and through the steamers' side, and through these apertures the water rushed, drowning those who were on deck. The ship was overboard. According to reports received here, two German passengers who were on their way to Korea in order to meet up business, were taken aboard the Japanese cruiser and succeeded in swimming to the Japanese cruiser, but in spite of their appeals to be taken on board and the announcement that they were noncombatants they were shot by the Japanese marines. A number of Chinese who swam to the cruiser shared the same fate.

The transport sank near Shantung island, for which place Captain Galsworthy was steering, intending to reach that port before the Japanese cruiser could reach him. The fire of the cruiser when the fatal torpedoes were discharged at the Kow Shung.

A French war ship, the Lion, steamed up to the transport and rescued some of the unfortunate Chinese soldiers, but all the foreigners are reported to have been taken on board the Kow Shung while returning from the transport. The ship was then destroyed by the sinking of the transport.

In large Chinese armaments have crossed the northwestern frontier of Korea and is marching down the peninsula. Another army is reported to have followed the first into Korea.

No details have been received of the battle which is said to have taken place at the mouth of the Yalu river between the Chinese and the Japanese forces.

It is reported that several Chinese steamers have been captured and a number of other vessels are being taken to Japan. The Japanese are reported to have taken a number of Chinese soldiers and officers to Japan.

It is said that there was quite a fleet of Chinese steamships in the Yellow Sea, but they were all captured by the Japanese ships and are now being taken to Japan.

Shanghai channel of the Yangtze-Kiang river in order to compel vessels to pass within easy range of the Woonsoo forts.

MAKING RAY WHILE SUN SHINES.

English Merchants Doing Big Business with the Japanese.

LONDON, July 30.—The English merchants having dealings with the Chinese evidently do not intend to allow the commencement of hostilities between China and Japan to pass without trying to make the most of this opportunity of increasing their bank account. London firms alone, during the last fortnight, have offered China several cargoes of goods, and they have also proposed that they should purchase a number of fast English steamships, which their owners claim can readily be converted into cruisers.

In addition, the English merchants have offered China nearly 1,000 guns of all sizes and styles, as well as a fresh lot of 400,000 Mannlicher rifles, with almost any amount of cartridges. When these offers were first made the Chinese government took no notice of them, but today several of these enterprising English firms have received orders from the Chinese government for the delivery of the goods.

The quotations of China and Japan securities and exchange do not show a fractional difference from their normal figures. The second officer of the Kow Shung, sunk by the Japanese cruiser near Shantung island, was the eldest son of an Essex clergyman who lost his youngest son in the fire which occurred at the Exeter theater.

The Chinese war ship San Francisco, which was captured by the Japanese, is said to have been forwarded to the Japanese government. The Japanese are reported to have taken a number of Chinese soldiers and officers to Japan.

It is said that there was quite a fleet of Chinese steamships in the Yellow Sea, but they were all captured by the Japanese ships and are now being taken to Japan.

Shanghai channel of the Yangtze-Kiang river in order to compel vessels to pass within easy range of the Woonsoo forts.

MAKING RAY WHILE SUN SHINES.

English Merchants Doing Big Business with the Japanese.

LONDON, July 30.—The English merchants having dealings with the Chinese evidently do not intend to allow the commencement of hostilities between China and Japan to pass without trying to make the most of this opportunity of increasing their bank account. London firms alone, during the last fortnight, have offered China several cargoes of goods, and they have also proposed that they should purchase a number of fast English steamships, which their owners claim can readily be converted into cruisers.

In addition, the English merchants have offered China nearly 1,000 guns of all sizes and styles, as well as a fresh lot of 400,000 Mannlicher rifles, with almost any amount of cartridges. When these offers were first made the Chinese government took no notice of them, but today several of these enterprising English firms have received orders from the Chinese government for the delivery of the goods.

The quotations of China and Japan securities and exchange do not show a fractional difference from their normal figures. The second officer of the Kow Shung, sunk by the Japanese cruiser near Shantung island, was the eldest son of an Essex clergyman who lost his youngest son in the fire which occurred at the Exeter theater.

The Chinese war ship San Francisco, which was captured by the Japanese, is said to have been forwarded to the Japanese government. The Japanese are reported to have taken a number of Chinese soldiers and officers to Japan.

It is said that there was quite a fleet of Chinese steamships in the Yellow Sea, but they were all captured by the Japanese ships and are now being taken to Japan.

Shanghai channel of the Yangtze-Kiang river in order to compel vessels to pass within easy range of the Woonsoo forts.

MAKING RAY WHILE SUN SHINES.

English Merchants Doing Big Business with the Japanese.

LONDON, July 30.—The English merchants having dealings with the Chinese evidently do not intend to allow the commencement of hostilities between China and Japan to pass without trying to make the most of this opportunity of increasing their bank account. London firms alone, during the last fortnight, have offered China several cargoes of goods, and they have also proposed that they should purchase a number of fast English steamships, which their owners claim can readily be converted into cruisers.

In addition, the English merchants have offered China nearly 1,000 guns of all sizes and styles, as well as a fresh lot of 400,000 Mannlicher rifles, with almost any amount of cartridges. When these offers were first made the Chinese government took no notice of them, but today several of these enterprising English firms have received orders from the Chinese government for the delivery of the goods.

The quotations of China and Japan securities and exchange do not show a fractional difference from their normal figures. The second officer of the Kow Shung, sunk by the Japanese cruiser near Shantung island, was the eldest son of an Essex clergyman who lost his youngest son in the fire which occurred at the Exeter theater.

The Chinese war ship San Francisco, which was captured by the Japanese, is said to have been forwarded to the Japanese government. The Japanese are reported to have taken a number of Chinese soldiers and officers to Japan.

It is said that there was quite a fleet of Chinese steamships in the Yellow Sea, but they were all captured by the Japanese ships and are now being taken to Japan.

Shanghai channel of the Yangtze-Kiang river in order to compel vessels to pass within easy range of the Woonsoo forts.

The British flag was relieved with great satisfaction at the Chinese legation, where it was hoisted. The sinking of the Kow Shung was a serious blow to the Japanese navy, and it is anticipated that it will be a serious blow to the Japanese navy.

At the Japanese legation the seriousness of the affair was admitted, but the news of the sinking of the Kow Shung was not believed.

CHINESE MARCHING TO SEOUL.

Story that a Conflict with the Japs is Likely in the Korean Capital.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 30.—The Japanese papers received here today state that last night are up to July 18, no later date than those which were brought by the Empress of Japan to Vancouver last Friday. The leading items of Korean news were telegraphed from Vancouver, but a few interesting particulars were omitted.

The Yokohama papers are filled with rumors of war, but most of the reports lack confirmation. According to a telegram dated Shanghai, July 10, General Lieutenant Min Chuan is reported to have declined to go to Korea as commander-in-chief of the Chinese army. He is said to have excused himself on the ground of eye disease.

The Nichi Nichi Seoul correspondent says: It is reported that the Chinese general, under the pretense of paying a homage to the king, is on his way to Seoul at the head of the troops hitherto stationed at A-San, and that he is about to enter Su Wan, about midway between Seoul and A-San, as a Chinese report, Chinese troops, instead of marching on Seoul, will remain for the present at A-San.

The Japanese version is likely to be true, because it was stated some time ago that the road had been placed under repair since the Japanese had taken the passing of Chinese troops. Should they attempt to enter Seoul a collision between them and the Japanese force can scarcely be averted.

The Japanese version is likely to be true, because it was stated some time ago that the road had been placed under repair since the Japanese had taken the passing of Chinese troops. Should they attempt to enter Seoul a collision between them and the Japanese force can scarcely be averted.

The Japanese version is likely to be true, because it was stated some time ago that the road had been placed under repair since the Japanese had taken the passing of Chinese troops. Should they attempt to enter Seoul a collision between them and the Japanese force can scarcely be averted.

The Japanese version is likely to be true, because it was stated some time ago that the road had been placed under repair since the Japanese had taken the passing of Chinese troops. Should they attempt to enter Seoul a collision between them and the Japanese force can scarcely be averted.

The Japanese version is likely to be true, because it was stated some time ago that the road had been placed under repair since the Japanese had taken the passing of Chinese troops. Should they attempt to enter Seoul a collision between them and the Japanese force can scarcely be averted.

The Japanese version is likely to be true, because it was stated some time ago that the road had been placed under repair since the Japanese had taken the passing of Chinese troops. Should they attempt to enter Seoul a collision between them and the Japanese force can scarcely be averted.

The Japanese version is likely to be true, because it was stated some time ago that the road had been placed under repair since the Japanese had taken the passing of Chinese troops. Should they attempt to enter Seoul a collision between them and the Japanese force can scarcely be averted.

The Japanese version is likely to be true, because it was stated some time ago that the road had been placed under repair since the Japanese had taken the passing of Chinese troops. Should they attempt to enter Seoul a collision between them and the Japanese force can scarcely be averted.

The Japanese version is likely to be true, because it was stated some time ago that the road had been placed under repair since the Japanese had taken the passing of Chinese troops. Should they attempt to enter Seoul a collision between them and the Japanese force can scarcely be averted.

The Japanese version is likely to be true, because it was stated some time ago that the road had been placed under repair since the Japanese had taken the passing of Chinese troops. Should they attempt to enter Seoul a collision between them and the Japanese force can scarcely be averted.

The Japanese version is likely to be true, because it was stated some time ago that the road had been placed under repair since the Japanese had taken the passing of Chinese troops. Should they attempt to enter Seoul a collision between them and the Japanese force can scarcely be averted.

The Japanese version is likely to be true, because it was stated some time ago that the road had been placed under repair since the Japanese had taken the passing of Chinese troops. Should they attempt to enter Seoul a collision between them and the Japanese force can scarcely be averted.

The Japanese version is likely to be true, because it was stated some time ago that the road had been placed under repair since the Japanese had taken the passing of Chinese troops. Should they attempt to enter Seoul a collision between them and the Japanese force can scarcely be averted.

The Japanese version is likely to be true, because it was stated some time ago that the road had been placed under repair since the Japanese had taken the passing of Chinese troops. Should they attempt to enter Seoul a collision between them and the Japanese force can scarcely be averted.

The Japanese version is likely to be true, because it was stated some time ago that the road had been placed under repair since the Japanese had taken the passing of Chinese troops. Should they attempt to enter Seoul a collision between them and the Japanese force can scarcely be averted.

The Japanese version is likely to be true, because it was stated some time ago that the road had been placed under repair since the Japanese had taken the passing of Chinese troops. Should they attempt to enter Seoul a collision between them and the Japanese force can scarcely be averted.

The Japanese version is likely to be true, because it was stated some time ago that the road had been placed under repair since the Japanese had taken the passing of Chinese troops. Should they attempt to enter Seoul a collision between them and the Japanese force can scarcely be averted.

The Japanese version is likely to be true, because it was stated some time ago that the road had been placed under repair since the Japanese had taken the passing of Chinese troops. Should they attempt to enter Seoul a collision between them and the Japanese force can scarcely be averted.

The Japanese version is likely to be true, because it was stated some time ago that the road had been placed under repair since the Japanese had taken the passing of Chinese troops. Should they attempt to enter Seoul a collision between them and the Japanese force can scarcely be averted.

The Japanese version is likely to be true, because it was stated some time ago that the road had been placed under repair since the Japanese had taken the passing of Chinese troops. Should they attempt to enter Seoul a collision between them and the Japanese force can scarcely be averted.

The Japanese version is likely to be true, because it was stated some time ago that the road had been placed under repair since the Japanese had taken the passing of Chinese troops. Should they attempt to enter Seoul a collision between them and the Japanese force can scarcely be averted.

The Japanese version is likely to be true, because it was stated some time ago that the road had been placed under repair since the Japanese had taken the passing of Chinese troops. Should they attempt to enter Seoul a collision between them and the Japanese force can scarcely be averted.

The Japanese version is likely to be true, because it was stated some time ago that the road had been placed under repair since the Japanese had taken the passing of Chinese troops. Should they attempt to enter Seoul a collision between them and the Japanese force can scarcely be averted.

The Japanese version is likely to be true, because it was stated some time ago that the road had been placed under repair since the Japanese had taken the passing of Chinese troops. Should they attempt to enter Seoul a collision between them and the Japanese force can scarcely be averted.

The Japanese version is likely to be true, because it was stated some time ago that the road had been placed under repair since the Japanese had taken the passing of Chinese troops. Should they attempt to enter Seoul a collision between them and the Japanese force can scarcely be averted.

The Japanese version is likely to be true, because it was stated some time ago that the road had been placed under repair since the Japanese had taken the passing of Chinese troops. Should they attempt to enter Seoul a collision between them and the Japanese force can scarcely be averted.

The Japanese version is likely to be true, because it was stated some time ago that the road had been placed under repair since the Japanese had taken the passing of Chinese troops. Should they attempt to enter Seoul a collision between them and the Japanese force can scarcely be averted.

The Japanese version is likely to be true, because it was stated some time ago that the road had been placed under repair since the Japanese had taken the passing of Chinese troops. Should they attempt to enter Seoul a collision between them and the Japanese force can scarcely be averted.

The Japanese version is likely to be true, because it was stated some time ago that the road had been placed under repair since the Japanese had taken the passing of Chinese troops. Should they attempt to enter Seoul a collision between them and the Japanese force can scarcely be averted.

The Japanese version is likely to be true, because it was stated some time ago that the road had been placed under repair since the Japanese had taken the passing of Chinese troops. Should they attempt to enter Seoul a collision between them and the Japanese force can scarcely be averted.

The Japanese version is likely to be true, because it was stated some time ago that the road had been placed under repair since the Japanese had taken the passing of Chinese troops. Should they attempt to enter Seoul a collision between them and the Japanese force can scarcely be averted.

QUARRELED OVER THE HOGS

One Man Killed, One Mortally and Another Seriously Wounded.

ONE OF THE MURDERERS ESCAPES

Sheriff's Posse is in Pursuit and as He is Badly Wounded—Victim Lies in a Precarious Condition.

TECUMSEH, Neb., July 30.—(Special Telegram to The Bee.)—As the result of a bloody shooting affray, which took place just over the line in Pawnee county and fourteen miles south of this city today, two men are dead, and two seriously wounded. Charles Schultz, a rich German farmer, with his two sons, Charles and Frank, live on a neighboring farm. Charles, a well-to-do and respected farmer. The neighbors had lately had a good deal of trouble on account of Abbott allowing his hogs to run at large and trespass upon the fields of Schultz. This morning the elder Schultz, with his son Charles, loaded a double-barreled shotgun and started on the war path for Abbott's porcines. Abbott caught on to the maneuver, and as the men came toward his hog lot, advanced to protect his property.

Young Schultz was carrying the gun at the time, and at the sight of his neighbor, the old man exclaimed "Give him the lead," whereupon young Schultz emptied both barrels into the chest of Abbott. The latter fell and his son, who was standing by, advanced to protect his property.

Young Schultz was carrying the gun at the time, and at the sight of his neighbor, the old man exclaimed "Give him the lead," whereupon young Schultz emptied both barrels into the chest of Abbott. The latter fell and his son, who was standing by, advanced to protect his property.

Young Schultz was carrying the gun at